IN MEMORY OF

Dave Mayta

Dave Mayta, a dedicated member of the Truman Heartland Community Foundation Board of Directors and the Independence Advisory Board, has left an indelible mark on our community. His tireless service and unwavering commitment have positively impacted countless lives. From his involvement in various committees to his pivotal role on the Grants Committee, Dave's dedication to uplifting others has been truly remarkable. His extensive volunteer work in the Kansas City Metro area and his contributions to numerous organizations have left a legacy of compassion and service. This summer, Dave passed away, but his name will forever be associated with the buildings and institutions he helped to nurture, reflecting his enduring impact on our community. For this reason, today's luncheon is dedicated in his memory.
